

DAYTON Ballet

The Nutcracker

Check box when completed

- Ride to the Schuster Center with family/group.
- Park the car or get dropped off and go inside the lobby.
- Get ticket scanned by an usher.
- Wait in the lobby until it is time to go into the theatre.
- Wait in line to go into the theatre.
- Receive your program from the usher.
- Find a seat—be sure to ask an usher if help is needed.
- Wait for the show to start. Before the show starts, listen to the curtain speech by the Artistic Director.
- Watch Act 1 of the show.
- In the middle of the show there will be an intermission, and the curtain will go down for 15 minutes. You can choose to get up, stretch, go to the restroom, or have a snack.
- Watch Act 2 of the show.
- Clap for the performers when the show is over.
- Collect all of your belongings.
- Wait in line to walk up the aisle and exit the theatre.
- Walk back to your car/bus.
- Ride home.

This sensory-friendly presentation of The Nutcracker on Thursday, December 20, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. is in partnership with:

